

Ezokanzo

(alias) Zenteika

Ezokanzo is a typical flower of ToyotoMicho

Ezokanzo buds yellow flowers in early summer
Also called Zenteika.

(Flower language)
Forget the sadness

(Flowering time)
Mid June to July

It is widely distributed from northern Honshu to Hokkaido, but the flower in Hokkaido are said to be wonderful.

What is seen in Honshu is called "Nikkokisuge", and although there are subtle differences, it is the same species.

Young leaves, buds and petals are edible as wild plants.

Tempura" is a typical cooking example.

